The Kappa Sigma boys and their lady friends made merry last Saturday evening. Sixteen couples of them went to Waukegan in sleighs and stopped at the Washburn hotel where refreshments were served. Orchestra music was furnished for the occasion. Souvenirs of bronze metal suspended to the fraternity colors now tell the tale of that happy event.

Leader Brown, to Glee Club:—Fellows be careful and notice the syncopated time following that recapitulated eleventh in the third phrase, and you make a suspended cadence on that "Town" while it ought to be a modulated contrapunctus. That sostenuto motif must be sung with a molto cantabile movement, and "he stole a pig" ought to be a poco due olena tulle le corde. This is a very simple song, and you ought to get it without any trouble, ready, one, two, sing.

rations for an open meeting to be given Feb. 18, '08. The Alumni are to give the programme and one of their old meetings is anticipated. Some of those who will take part are: Chas. ALUMNI.

Mr. Rumsey ex-'90 visited Lake Forest last week.

Miss Underwood ex-'92 is teaching in Moline Ill.

Mr. Wulliman ex-'98 is attending the Chicago Dental College.

Mr. Rumsey, ex-'99, spent a few days in Lake Forest last week.

Miss Grace Pierce '94 read a paper before the Indiana State convention of teachers.

Mr. King, '92, who went to Phoenix, Ariz last spring for his health, having been a sufferer for some time from Tuberculosis, is recovering slowly.

Miss Mary Pearce, ex-'87, has gone to Bonider Park, Colo., where she is attending school and teaching physical culture and elocution.

WHY?

The following has been received in answer to the premature valentine in last week's issue headed, "To a Mitchellhallite."

If thou wert a dew drop,
And I a red rose,
At thy soft foolish fancies
I'd turn up my nose.

If to steal sweetest perfume,
And to revel in bliss,
Were thy sole aim and purpose,
I'd answer with this:

"Go, visit the North pole,
Step up to the sun;
It may be, by that time,
Thy wish might be won."
Miss Mary Moffat spent Saturday in Chicago.

Miss Laura Loomis entertained her sister last Thursday.

Mr. Dietrich, of Hasting, Nebraska, called on his daughter, Gertrude, Friday.

Miss Maude Douglas spent the latter part of last week at her home in Aurora.

Miss Cora Weaver left for her home in Winamac, Indiana, Thursday evening.

Miss Jane Hotchin and Miss Fanny Fonda were guests of friends in the city over Sunday.

Miss Sargent was entertained by Miss Fleming of Chicago, a former teacher at Ferry Hall.

Miss Winnie Westervelt will return to her home in South Bend, Indiana, on Wednesday. She expects to return to school after the spring vacation.

Prayer Day for Colleges will long be remembered by Ferry Hall girls as one of the pleasantest of the year. Enough praise could not be given for the morning address at the church. In the afternoon, in Ferry Hall Chapel, a very interesting address was given by Dr. Hale, of Chicago, on “Nevertheless,” taken from Luke 5:5. He represented this word as a bridge which led from a lower to a higher plane. He said if when we met obstacles and had failed to accomplish all that we had planned, nevertheless if we worked on as Christ would have us, success would surely crown our efforts, as in the case of Peter. Mr. Barnes talked about “Friendship with Jesus” and everything he said seemed to be so fitting after what had been said before. Dr. McClure closed the meeting with a few words in regard to the thoughts of the day and the interest everyone had shown in the services.

“Young man,” said the professor as he stepped into the hall and caught a frisky freshman by the shoulder, “I believe Satan has hold of you.”

“I believe he has,” was the answer.

You can lead a horse to water
But you cannot make him drink;
You can ride your little pony,
But you cannot make him think.
ACADEMY NOTES.

The Educational Review and the School Review are new magazines to be found on the reading room tables.

Prof. Welch treated the boys of Remsen Cottage to a sleigh ride Wednesday evening.

The latest continued stories are those received by Campbell. They are sometimes continued to the length of twenty feet or more.

Banta and Miller went to Chicago Saturday to meet with members of the Triangular League, and to arrange the work for the base ball season and the track contest in the spring.

Mr. Burke, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will address the meeting tonight at seven o'clock. All should come out, as he will tell us things of interest and things which will be of help to us in the work.

Prayer Day was of practical benefit to many of the boys. Many were heard talking throughout the day of Dr. Rondthaler's and Dr. Thomas's remarks. A few such days in the year would be of great value to us all.

A musical was given by Prof. and Mrs. Welch to the University Club Thursday evening. Friday morning a greater part of the program was given in the chapel for the benefit of the students. The program was greatly enjoyed by the boys.

Herr Bern is not infrequently an entertainer of the boys during the chapel hour, and they have learned to welcome his appearance with rounds of applause. He has few superiors in the art of violin and piano playing. Miss Welch's fine voice is also a favorite with the students who are often favored with her singing during the chapel hour.

The day of prayer for colleges was fittingly observed by the various departments of the school Thursday. The address in the church by Dr. Rondthaler was full of the best things which the English language is capable of expressing. Dr. Thomas delivered an address before the Academy boys in Reid Hall in the afternoon on the subject "Time, and how will you spend it?"

Despite the efforts of the Juniors the Seniors had the long expected sleigh ride Wednesday night. A "night off" was granted on account of the Day of Prayer Thursday, and both classes took advantage of the time for a class contest. The Juniors acknowledged their defeat, and came down with good grace which under the circumstances was all that they could do. Parsons, who was tied in his room by a party of Juniors, saved himself from being gagged by promising, with his chin on the Bible—his hands being tied—that he would make no outcries for aid. But he succeeded in untying himself, and escaping through the transom, joined the sleigh ride much to the chagrin of his captors.

Quite a number of the fellows went to Fort Sheridan last week to see Pres. Dole, of Hawaii. The boys lined up and as he stepped from the train they gave the college and academy yells in acknowledgement of which the honorable personage lifted his hat. Some of the boys who skipped English work to go were called upon to write essays; some were asked to write up the trip, while those in 4th English were asked to write on the subject, "Burke's Use of the Classics." One of the fellows was heard to remark that it would be hard for one unacquainted with the circumstances to find the connection between this subject and a trip to Fort Sheridan.

ALUMNI MEETING.

The next regular meeting of the Chicago Club of Lake Forest Alumni will be held at the Briggs House in Chicago on Monday evening, Feb. 7th, at 6:30 p. m. A large attendance is desired.

DR. RONDTHALER.

In the morning prayer service held in the Church Chapel Thursday a large gathering was present and listened with great pleasure and assuredly much profit to a talk by Dr. Rondthaler.

Dr. Rondthaler's subject of discussion was "The Religion of Thought" and he handled it in a pleasant and remarkably able manner. He showed clearly in his discourse how our thoughts are leaders of us all, whether for good or for bad, and that the training our minds receive has a great deal to do with the direction they lead us. Such talks as Dr. Rondthaler gave us are fruitful with benefits, particularly to the students.
TWILIGHT MUSINGS.

I sometimes think the world is getting better and then again I sometimes doubt it. You know we old folks are inclined to look at the long ago through rosy-lined glasses. "Twas ever thus." Even the old men of Israel wept when they remembered the former magnificence of the temple and compared it with the then modern structure. But I was thinking of discoveries that are new and then made which show the intellectual progress and moral excellence of people of ancient times whom we had been accustomed to consider savages. Such discoveries always make us feel our own littleness, and they upset so many of our theories of life. We like to think that we are the climax of an intellectual and moral evolution, and we look back upon past generations with a feeling of pity— as being merely the ladder on which our modern civilization has climbed to the Eumenian Genius of the race. And so when we pick up an old parchment that tells of past glories, as was done away back in old Israel during the reign of Josiah it has somewhat the same effect upon us that it had upon the people of old.

I thought of this as I picked up an old book containing the records of the Lake Forest College Y. M. C. A. which laid among the old rubbish cleaned out at the time of the removal into the new dormitory. It is the record for 1892-3 and it contains a full account of an active year's work. One item is as follows: "Oct. 29—Y. M. C. A. reception at Art Institute—largely attended by students from the Academy, Seminary and College as well as by faculty and town folks. A very enjoyable evening in the way of three minute conversations, ten in number. Previous to the "conversations" there was a musical selection by the glee club, and some appropriate remarks by Dr. McClure. All enjoyed themselves greatly and pronounced it the best Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. reception ever tendered." The attendance was about two hundred and fifty.

The Y. M. C. A. got out a hand book that year of which the record says: "The size and general brevity of the matter has received commendation from college men and is similar to the best hand books issued." Herbert E. House, who was the president of the association at the time the hand book was gotten up, records the advice to following generations. "Future editions should have a page giving names and position of faculty and the school calendar of the year, and also should contain pictures of the buildings."

Nine men were sent as delegates to represent Lake Forest College at the Y. M. C. A. summer school at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, and the following is a record of the work of the Association during the Christmas vacation:

"Lake Forest and Northwestern Universities in union sent out two bands. The Lake Forest band, with K. B. Spellman as leader and E. L. Jones and E. A. Drake as well as three of the Evanston boys, Lee, Denison and Stead, as members, went to Washington, Illinois, where they worked during the whole of the Holiday week with marked success. The average attendance at men's meetings was 4; at the women's meetings, 49. The meetings resulted in 15 conversions. The work not only strengthened our fellows but, there is reason to trust, left an abiding influence in Washington."

SONG.

DEDICATED TO OUR MAYOR.

Tune La La La 6's & 7's.

O! good kind Mayor we deplore,
That street lamps which are lit at four,
Quite lose their rays at 6 A. M.
The early public need them then.

When sallying forth to make the train,
Especially on Lake Avenue,
Are yawning ditches hid from view,
In which unwary victims fall.

And, even with conviction firm on
Carrying out our pastor's sermon
For all his flock on New Year's Day (the next day)
They let their passions have full play;
For you can see those awful holes,
Are just the things to try men's souls.
Now would the treasury be embarrassed
If luminaries for the harrassed,
Were furnished till Earth's revolution
Had brought 'Old Sol' in evolution?
We beg, kind sir, you'll speak in season,
And use your ermine with good reason,
That the lamp lighter be not lax—
Unless— it would increase our tax—
If we'd rather fall in ditches
Or pay for embarrassment of riches.

* SNIDE TALKS WITH GIRLS.

By Rash Ruthmore.

MAGGIE—Unless you are provided with numerous bicycle chains and locks it is considered consistent in some places to carry your hat and coat into the parlors, as they are less easily carried away. For particulars apply to Mr. "Dear Heart."—

GUGZLINE—No, it is not the best usage to curl the little finger daintily when conveying anything to the mouth with a spoon or other article which assists in the acts preparatory to mastication. Mrs. Astorbiilt and others gracefully point the aforesaid digit at right angles with the back of the hand. The old method is very much vendange de quatre-vingt six.

MYLDRED—A young lady of seventeen should not be allowed to use a fork at table as there is much danger of putting out the eyes.

ETHELYNN—No, when a young lady is driving four-in-hand to a dog cart it is not necessary for her to lift her hat to her gentleman acquaintances.

IVY—No, strawberries should not be eaten with a pick-axe it is liable to injure the straw.

RHEA—A good receipt for removing freckles is as follows. Parts by weight
Concentrated sulphuric acid 3
Nitro-glycerine 2
Ichthyol 4
Giant gunpowder 7
Place a sufficient amount on each freckle and hit with a tack hammer.

According to the Yale senior class-books the average expenses of the members of the class of 1895, while at Yale, were as follows: Freshman year, $912; sophomore year, $943; junior year, $942; senior year, $1,032. Grand total, $3,829.

A father thus petitioned.

SCIENTIFIC KITE FLYING.

Of late, there has been an immense amount of curiosity manifested by the students in the huge kites which can be seen, at all hours of the day, flying high over the University buildings. During the summer months Prof. Stevens conducted an extensive series of experiments with box kites, along the same line as that done at the Blue Hill Mass. experiment station, and has now succeeded in developing the idea in an entirely new and eminently practicable form.

These kites are now in daily use at the University experiment station by Prof Stevens and Instructor Anderson. The line of work in which they are especially interested, is meteorology with special reference to atmospheric electricity and humidity. Some valuable data have been secured and they have been deemed of such value that they are to be sent to the Weather Bureau at Washington.

Lake Forest Academy vs. North Division High School.

The North Division High School of Chicago and the Lake Forest Academy Indoor Base Ball teams played a game of ball in the "Gym" Saturday night.

The strength of the visiting team lay with their battery. The home team on the contrary were very weak at this point, the point on which most depends in this game. In the last half of the game Terwilleger was placed behind the bat which produced a slight change in the game. There must be more systematic battery practice before we will have the team which we should have. There is material for an excellent team in the boys who were on the floor Saturday night but it will take more work to bring it out than occasional practice.

The last annual financial statement of the Yale Athletic Union gives some figures which show impressively the cost of the training tables as a branch of athletic expenses. In football the training table cost $2,600; in baseball, $2,100; in boating, $2,004; in track athletics, $1,274. The total cost of the four training tables was thus $8,074; figures which indicate the magnitude modern athletics have attained.

The Yale News publishes an interesting article under the head "The Poor Student at Yale," in which it gives the fact that out of 1,395 students graduated 271 were partially self-supporting and 65 entirely self-supporting. It also gave the different means employed for support among which are: abatement of tuition by college authorities, which means all but $40 of the term bill cancelled, prizes awarded for excellence in studies, amounting to more than fifteen hundred dollars, monitor and choir work at chapel, which brings as high as $2 to $3, publications and writing, subscription work, type-writing and stenography, and odd work outside the college.

Home Sweet Home.
(Dedicated to Various Club Boarders.)

Backward, turn backward, oh time in thy flight;
Feed me on gruel again just for tonight.
I am so weary of sole-leather steak,
Petrified doughnuts and vulcanized cake;
Oysters that slept in a watery bath,
Butter as strong as Goliath or Gath;
Weary of paying for what I don’t eat;
Chewing up rubber and calling it meat.

Backward, turn backward, for weary I am,
Give me a whack at my grandmother’s jam.
Let me drink milk that has never been skimmed,
Let me eat butter whose hair has been trimmed.

Let me once more have an old fashioned pie
And then I’ll be ready to curl up and die.

"I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard."
A PARODY.

Once there lived side by side two little frats,
Lived in joy peaceably without any spats,
Before they left Oakenwald
With moustaches so thin;
Now they have reached the dorm,
Their troubles begin.
When school was over,
Plans they did make,
For a big sleigh ride
Which night to take?
Next day a quarrel came,
Naughty words were said,
Kappa Sigma's up in arms,
Phi Pi's ahead.

CHORUS:—
We don't want to have your old night,
We don't like you anymore,
You'll be sorry when you see us,
With the girls whom you adore.
You can't treat your chaperones good,
We will show you what to do.
There will be no more fine sleigh-rides,
Till you learn a thing or two.

Now there was near the frats,
A nice little Sem,
Where the girls smiled and "joshed,"
While the boys talked to them.
Before invitations came
For the sleigh-rides so nigh
These maidens couldn't work,
Excitement ran high.
When cards began to come,
Everyone knew,
Which girls got one bid,
Which girls got two.
Course each girl had a choice,
But when urged by the men,
They played "second fiddle,"
JUST to commodate them.

CHORUS:—
We don't like to be so cruel,
After such a gay sleigh-ride,
For we did have such a gay time,
And the lunch was good beside.
You can't treat your chaperones good,
We will show you what to do.
There will be no more fine sleigh rides,
Till you learn a thing or two.
